

SmartQuote; the innovative tech to boost your business

Available through our GI for Intermediaries Portal, SmartQuote is designed to streamline the home insurance quote and apply process to make it easier for you to sell home insurance to your clients.

Using what we already know about your client's local area and property from publicly available data sources, SmartQuote gets rid of the need for complex questions, allowing you to provide your clients with a quote in just five questions. A better service for your client, more sales for you.

Get a Buildings and Contents quote in as little as five questions

A typical buildings and contents insurance quote asks clients around 40 questions. SmartQuote delivers a quote in five questions.

We no longer need to ask your clients questions such as what locks they have, or what type of property they live in, because we already have what we need.

If you already know your customers, these are the answers you may already have:

The one you need:

What do others love about SmartQuote?

- Different to an indicative quick quote system. The quote we give your client is guaranteed, assuming they can agree to our usual assumptions..
- Reduced disclosure risk. Clients no longer have to answer a lot of complex questions which potentially means fewer claims declined.
- Access to our latest home insurance products. Which have never been available through an intermediary until now.
